About the Aircraft

The Citation XLS is among the bestselling private jets of all time, and for good reason. This midsize private jet flies into and out of smaller airports while offering exceptional comfort and premium amenities.

More than 18 feet in length, the cabin provides ample room for up to 7 passengers. Consider the possibilities and seamless travel opportunities. As a regional business jet, its spacious interior offers the ultimate in-flight conference room. Also, the Citation XLS features a full refreshment center and a spacious baggage compartment, giving it versatility when traveling for pleasure.
